

CHRISSY RAINWATER CONNER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP
at Eastern Carolina Community Foundation
info@easterncarolinacf.org

Chrissy Conner was a dedicated woman who knew the importance of helping others. Her love for all was very evident in her life but she especially loved helping people achieve their nontraditional goals. In her memory, friends have established a vocational technical tuition scholarship for a graduating The King's Academy senior for 2019. This $1000 scholarship seeks to support a graduating senior from The King's Academy who is pursuing education/training (vocational certificate) for a skilled technical profession.

Qualifications: The applicant must:

1. Be a graduating senior attending The King's Academy in Florence, SC.
2. Be accepted to a certificate program for a skilled trade. The course of study must be at least 15 weeks in duration at an accredited institution. This scholarship will not apply to online programs.
3. Plan to enter the workforce immediately after completing the certificate program.

Process:

1. The applicant must return an application to Eastern Carolina Community Foundation, PO Box 1615, Florence, SC 29503 by Monday, April 15, 2019 along with:
 - A personal statement as described on the next page.
 - Provide your most recent official transcript of grades.
 - Provide proof of acceptance to a certificate program for a skilled trade.
 - Provide 2 letters of reference from school officials that are not family members.
2. Incomplete applications will not be reviewed.
3. The scholarship is for tuition expenses for learning specific skills, not for general education. It will be paid directly to the institution where the student plans to attend, not to an individual.
